

Can You OBEY?

SAY: Give me an “O” / Give me a “B” / Give me a “E” / Give me a “Y”—What’s that spell? OBEY. Today we’re going to talk about how to obey. Let’s spell it again...

Choose seven volunteers who are willing to obey and do what I say?

SAY: This is a test to see how well you obey. Line up across the front. Put your arms out until you can’t touch anyone else. Now, pretend you are climbing a ladder. Pretend you are walking on a tight-rope. Pretend you are stomping on a roach—Ooooh. It’s a big roach! Pretend you are putting up groceries. Pretend you are milking a cow—Give, Betsy, give. The kids have gotta live! Pretend you are picking your nose! Just kidding. Pretend you are chopping down a tree. Now faster. Stop. Slow motion.

Spiritual Application: Sometimes you might feel a little silly obeying, but you’ll never go wrong when you do what’s right. Say that with me...So the next time your mom says, “No more TV. Get ready for bed.” Instead of throwing a fit or whining, you’ll do what’s right. The next time your friends are making fun of someone, you won’t just follow the crowd. The next time you are tempted to lie, just remember that you’ll never go wrong when you do what’s right. Always obey, every day...Be one God’s side!

Repeat: Be on God’s side!
