God Can Save Anyone

Ask the students: Is there any sin so great that if a person asks for forgiveness that God can't forgive him/her? (No.)

Ask the students: Is anyone so bad that God can't save them? (No.)

Activity: God Can

SAY: If you think God can save the meanest man in town, go and stand against the wall on my left. If you don't think God can save him, stand against the wall to my right.

SAY: If you think God can save a liar, go and stand against the wall on my right. If you don't think God can save him, stand against the wall to my left.

SAY: If you think God can save a bully who hurts people for the fun of it, go and stand against the wall on my right. If you don't think God can save him and change his life, stand against the wall to my left.

SAY: If you think God can save and change someone who gets drunk and does drugs, go and stand against the wall on my right. If you don't think God can save him, stand against the wall to my left.

KEY: God will save anyone who wants to give Him their life—no matter what they've done in the past.
