

How Big is Your Church?

At a Christian school one day a first-grader named Sarah sat with me on the playground. She began to tell me that her dad was a pastor. "How big is your church?" I asked. She paused for a moment as if considering the question, then responded, "Oh, about as tall as the swing-set."

*Copyright three-thirty ministries, 2008. www.threethirtyministries.org