

Judging Others

Not a True Story...

A woman went into a psychiatrist's office. She had a fried egg on her head and strips of bacon hanging over her ears. She said to the doctor, "I didn't come to see you about myself; I came to see you about my brother. There is something wrong with him."

¹

Moral: It's easy to see something wrong with others, while over-looking our own faults.

¹W. Herschel Ford, Sermons You Can Preach on John, (Grand Rapids: Zondervan Publishing House, 1958) p. 177.