

MAN OF PRAYER

A man once lived,
In the town of Care,
He was known for being,
A man of prayer.

When bad things happened
He knew what to do,
He didn't fret or worry,
Or get sad and turn blue.

As a child his mama,
Had taught him to pray.
And it's something he did,
Throughout the day.

He wasn't rich or famous,
Or powerful like some,
But he truly knew where,
Real power comes from.

Here's a week in his life...

On Sunday...
He spilled his juice,
His dog got loose,
And he was bit on the toe by mean old goose.
But all he had to say,
Was, "I think I need to go and pray."

On Monday...
His nose grew a wart,
His pants were too short,
And that mean old goose ate his business report,
But all he had to say,
Was, "I think I need to go and pray."

On Tuesday...
His TV did sputter,
He talked with a stutter,
And that mean old goose ate all of his butter,
But all he had to say,
Was, "I think I need to go and pray."

On Wednesday...
He tripped over a tree,
And skinned his left knee,
And that goose stole his lunch, you see,
But all he had to say,
Was, "I think I need to go and pray."

On Thursday...
Someone stole his favorite pen,
Something smelly and green grew on his skin,
And that goose ate his lunch again,
But all he had to say,
Was, "I think I need to go and pray."

On Friday...
He stubbed his toe,
He lost his glasses in the snow,
And got pecked on the head by that goose, you know,
But all he had to say,
Was, "I think I need to go and pray."

On Saturday...
There were holes in his socks,
He got stepped on by an big, fat ox,
And that goose got stuck inside his mailbox,
But all he had to say,
Was, "I think I need to go and pray."

The truth is,
This man had cares,
But greater than them,
Were his prayers.

These bad things happened,
And were a great big bother,
But this man knew how,
To lay his cares before the Father.

Prayer

If earthly dads know how to take care of their children, how much more can God take care of His children. God loves you and wants you to lay all your cares before Him. The Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7 says, "Casting all your worries on him, because he cares for you."
