Apple’s Product Submission Process

Once an iPhone/iPad app is complete, it will be submitted to Apple for approval. Three-thirty ministries is not responsible for delays concerning Apple’s review and approval process. In the event that Apple or Google rejects an app, Three-thirty ministries will attempt to work with them to resolve any issues. Three-thirty ministries is not responsible the final outcome of the review process, and, in the event that an app cannot be processed for the App Store or Google Play Store, all fees paid for the app will be refunded to you.

Completion

Once the app is available in Google Play or approved by Apple and released into the App Store, you will be notified and will have one week in which to request modifications. Modifications beyond this period of time will be subject to the current fee if an update is required. All sales are final.

Updates

Upon completion of the app, you will be notified concerning the process of requesting updates for your app. No fees will be charged for minor changes to your church’s information (i.e., schedule, welcome, website links and contact information) unless these adjustments exceed 8 changes per year. For graphic changes, the addition of new features and other adjustments that require an app update, the current Update charge is $35 for the first hour or partial hour of work and $45 for each hour following. If an update is needed, once you notify

Three-thirty ministries with an update request, we will send a price quote and wait to receive approval from you before beginning modifications.

When submitting updates to the App Store, Three-thirty ministries, has no control over how long it takes Apple to approve the modifications. This time line can take anywhere from two days to two weeks once the modifications are uploaded for approval.

Copyright

You are responsible for making sure that there are no copyright infringements concerning the images, pictures, logos, icons, information, etc. that are submitted for the creation of your app or that are used on the website which you are requesting Three-thirty ministries to use in the creation of your app. Three-thirty ministries is not responsible for acquiring or confirming any copyright permissions for images, pictures, logos, icons, information, etc., that are being submitted for the app creation or that are maintained on or through your website. If you come to the knowledge that you are not in accordance with copyright laws, including items being used in the app, you must immediately contact Three-thirty ministries, requesting an adjustment or an update to change or remove the item in question, paying any updating fees that this change may incur.

Editorial/Marketing Information

Three-thirty ministries does not offer editorial or marketing services for your app. You are solely responsible for all content, grammar, promotion and publicity for your app. Three-thirty ministries does not provide any form of promotion for your app.

Information Icon

Three-thirty ministries reserves the right to insert an “information” icon on the main menu and/or first screen of each app, and sometimes at other places deemed appropriate containing information about Three-thirty ministries and the services we offer.

Design

Our desire is to produce an app that is pleasing for you and to establish a long-term tool that will bless your organization, congregation or community. We want you to have as much influence in the look of your app as possible, even to the point of you being able to fully design your own screens. Nevertheless, our designers many times have to make judgment calls and “fill in the gaps” around the information and images that you supply. If you want specific items in your app or for items to operate in a specific way, please give us this information in detail when you first request your app. All design features are subject to your final approval through screen shots prior to the release of your app and/or during the review period the first week after the release of your app.

Production Time

Production time can vary. In an appropriate amount of time after receiving your submission, we will contact you with a tentative time line.

Developer/Administrative Rights

Three-thirty ministries has the right to refuse the production or continuance of an app at any time for any reason.

Termination of an App

You can request at any time for your app to be removed from the Google Play or App Store. There is no charge for the termination of an app although you are responsible for fulfilling the terms of this agreement, namely the twenty-four monthly payments, even if you request the app to be terminated before the end of this time.

Disclaimers

Three-thirty ministries assumes no responsibility or liability for any harm or injury that may occur from the use or misuse of any of the information, ideas or resources contained on your app or any information that is accessed in your website through the app. You are solely
