If You're Glad to Be Here...

SAY: If you're glad to be here today, clap your hands three times.

SAY: If you're glad to be here today, stand up and sit down.

SAY: If you're glad to be here today, say, "Howdy!"

SAY: If you had rather be here today than the best jail in town, say, "Oh Yeah!"

SAY: If you had rather be here today than the greatest hospital in the state, pat your back.

SAY: If you had rather be here today than in the dentist's office, give me a big smile!

SAY: If you had rather be here today than in the principal's office, raise your hands in the air.

SAY: If you had rather be here today than in the middle of the desert with no water and a very thirsty camel, count to three...louder!

SAY: If you're ready to get started, say, "Let's do it!"

This is a great time to share Psalm 118:24.
