

In His Hands

Cast: Two Roman soldiers
Jesus
A young girl
Small choir (six or seven people)

Choir: (Enters in a perfect line, surrounds microphone and begins singing to the tune of "He's Got the Whole World in His Hands") God made the whole world with His hands; He made the whole world with His hands; He made the whole world with His hands; He made the whole world with His hands.

(Enter two Romans soldiers mocking Jesus.)

Soldier 1: Hail, King of the Jews

Soldier 2: He's not the King of the Jews. He's nobody!

Soldier 1: Carry your cross, King of the Jews!

Choir: (Singing slower) Jesus took the whole world in His hands; He took the whole world in His hands; He took the whole world in His hands; He took the whole world in His hands.

(Jesus stands center stage with arms extended upon an imaginary cross.)

Choir: He wants to take you in His hands; He wants to take you in His hands; He wants to take you in His hands; He wants to take you in His hands.

(Young girl enters and falls to her knees praying.)

Young Girl: Jesus, I know I'm a sinner and I want you to come into my heart and forgive me.

(Jesus kneels down and picks the girl up by the hand. They exit hand in hand as the choir sings.)

Choir: He'll always hold you in his hand; He'll always hold you in his hand; He'll always hold you in his hand; He'll always hold you in his hand.

(The choir sings the last verse as they leave the stage and walk down the aisles, singing to the people.)

Choir: Just ask Jesus in your heart; Just ask Jesus in your heart; Just ask Jesus in your heart; 'Cause He took the whole world in His hands.
