

Story: When I was in the 9th grade my youth minister gave me a list about making wise choices that was very similar to the one below. He challenged us to put it somewhere where we could see it often and review it anytime we had a touch or questionable choice to make. I hung it on the back of my bedroom door. Many times through the following years, I would shut my door, kneel down and pray, looking at the list. It blessed me greatly.
