

Mother's Day Skit

Characters needed: Father and 1 or 2 daughters

Daughter: Hey, dad, why do we have Mother's Day?

Father: Well, (daughter's name), it's to show moms that we appreciate them for all they do.

Daughter: Like what?

Father: Well just think about it. Who does most of the laundry around the house?

Daughter: Mom does.

Father: Who cleans the toilets in our house?

Daughter: Mom does.

Father: And who takes care of you most of the time when you're sick?

Daughter: Mom does.

Father: And there's a lot of other nice things that moms do.

Daughter 1: Yeah, mom is always picking up your dirty socks when you leave them on the floor. And she picks up your cups when you leave them by the chair. And she never complains about your snoring--even though she has to sleep in the same room with you.

Father: Okay. Okay. I think you get the picture. You know God gave us moms to help take care of us, but even the world's greatest mom can't begin to compare with how God takes care of us.

Daughter: What do you mean, dad?

Father: You see the Bible says that God takes care of the birds and feeds them and even knows when one of them falls to the ground. If God cares that much for little birdies how much more do you think he cares for you? Jesus loves you, (name), and I love you too. (Gives hug).

NOTE: This skit is a good introduction to a discussion about how God cares for us all.
